

DISCOUNTS THEM ALL!

After an absence of more than three long weeks in the Eastern markets, A. E. Bishop has returned, and now the goods are arriving, dray load after dray load. It takes a long while to buy such an enormous stock of goods as A. E. BISHOP & CO. carry, and our customers and the trade generally can depend upon buying goods cheap this fall, as A. E. Bishop did not spend three long weeks in the market for naught; but by taking lots of time and figuring carefully we have purchased an enormous stock of Dry Goods, Boots, Shoes, Millinery, Cloaks, Men's Furnishing Goods, etc., etc., at such extremely low prices as to be able to offer the trade lower prices this fall than ever before.

COME TO THE GREAT TWO-FLOOR BARGAIN STORE OF A. E. BISHOP & CO.

See the thousands of new things that are arriving. Stacks of New Dress Goods, Broadcloths; fine, wide Plushes for dresses, 24 inches wide; Novelty Suitings, all-wool Dress Flannels double width 28c, Silks black and colors, Faille Francais Velvets, Plushes, and so on. More dress goods than any two stores in Abilene. Stacks of Gingham, Shirtings, Calicoes, Cotton Flannels—all at very low prices.

KID GLOVES. Four times the quantity of kid gloves ever carried by any one house in Abilene before. See our fine kid gloves at only 50c a pair. A great bargain in ladies' kid gloves at $1.00. Fine warranted kid gloves at $1.50 and $2.00. These are fine goods and made for service. We also carry a full line of kid gloves for gentlemen.	YARNS. Great bargains in Yarns. Domestic Saxony, Imported Saxony, Spanish and Germantown Yarns. German knitting worsted, Shetland, common Yarns etc. All at a bargain.	CLOAKS. The only exclusive Cloak department in central Kansas. More Cloaks than all the balance of the houses in Abilene combined. This is making a very strong assertion, but when our full stock arrives we invite the attention of the trade to prove this assertion.	MILLINERY. New and latest styles in fine Millinery now arriving. Miss Patton and Miss Berry both having returned after an extended tour through the fashionable pattern rooms of the eastern wholesale houses, we can promise the ladies the very latest in this line. We have also determined to make a marked reduction in the price of Millinery goods. Come, we give you latest styles, better quality of work and	lower prices than you can find elsewhere.
---	--	--	--	---

A. E. BISHOP & CO.

The Great Low-Priced House for Everything.

The Reflector.
THURSDAY, SEPT. 20, 1888.
The Reflector Publishing Company.
JOHN J. COOPER, President.
O. L. MOORE, Vice President.
RICHARD W. WARRING, Secretary.
A. W. RICE, Treasurer.
DIRECTORS.
JOHN J. COOPER, A. W. RICE,
O. L. MOORE, R. F. NELSON,
RICHARD W. WARRING.
BUSINESS MANAGER.
RICHARD W. WARRING.
CITY EDITOR.
C. M. HARGER.
ADVERTISING RATES.
1w 1m 3m 6m 1y
One column..... $8 $18 $35 $60 $100
One-half column..... 4 10 18 30 50
One-fourth column..... 2 5 9 15 25
One-eighth column..... 1 2 4 7 12
One inch..... 1 2 4 7 12
SUBSCRIPTION RATES.
One year..... $10
Six months..... 5
Three months..... 3

Republican National Ticket.
For President,
BENJAMIN HARRISON,
(Of Indiana).
For Vice-President,
LEVI P. MORTON,
(Of New York).
For Presidential Electors.
At Large—EUGENE F. WARE and JOHN D. WALLER.
First District—A. W. ROBINSON.
Second District—FRANK R. OGG.
Third District—T. P. ANDERSON.
Fourth District—JOHN MADDEN.
Fifth District—D. A. VALENTINE.
Sixth District—J. B. MCGONIGAL.
Seventh District—E. L. CHAPMAN.
REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.
For Governor,
L. U. HUMPHREY,
of Montgomery.
For Lieutenant Governor,
A. J. FELT,
of Nemaha.
For Secretary of State,
WILLIAM HIGGINS,
of Shawnee.
For State Auditor,
TEM MCCARTHY,
of Pawnee.
For State Treasurer,
JAS. W. HAMILTON,
of Sumner.
For Attorney General,
L. B. KELLOGG,
of Lyon.
For Superintendent of Public Instruction,
GEO. W. WINANS,
of Davis.
For Associate Justice,
W. A. JOHNSTON,
of Ottawa.
For Congressman, Fifth Dist.,
JOHN A. ANDERSON.
REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET.
For County Attorney,
C. C. BITTING.
For Probate Judge,
B. W. PECK.
For Clerk of the District Court,
W. S. ANDERSON.
For County Superintendent,
J. S. FORD.
For Representative 68th District,
J. B. BURTON.
For Representative 69th District,
J. W. GIBSON.
For Commissioner, 2d District,
J. W. BAKER.
For Senator, 23d District,
F. P. HARKNESS.

THE ARKANSAS OUTRAGES.

The Democracy's Villainous Practices In the South Fully Exposed.

Mr. E. D. Sanders, candidate for the office of Sheriff on the People's ticket in Crittenden county, has laid before Gov. Hughes a statement of the method by which the election was carried in that county.

Mr. Sanders says there were, in round numbers, 2,800 votes polled in Crittenden county. The Democratic ticket received 400 and the People's ticket 2,400, yet the minority controlling the election machinery has counted out a majority of 1,450 for the Democratic ticket. The people who have been thus defrauded of their rights feel so outraged that they can hardly restrain their indignation, but instead of taking the matter in their own hands, they appeal to Gov. Hughes to do something to right the wrong.

The judges of election were chosen by those having control of the county offices. When the polling places were opened they were found to be in charge of judges who, in many cases, were not even residents of the township. At Hopefield the judges of election were saloon-keepers from Memphis.

That they might have some means of knowing how the votes were cast, the supporters of the People's ticket stationed two clerks at every polling place but two in the entire county. These clerks kept a record of every ballot cast for the People's ticket. By a previous arrangement, all of these tickets were voted "open." That is, they were not folded but were handed to the judges in such a manner that everybody standing around could see what they were. This was done by the supporters of the People's ticket so that there might be no question raised as to how they voted. And in this way the evidence was obtained that the majority was overwhelming for the People's ticket.

The statement which Mr. Sanders laid before Gov. Hughes is a plain, straightforward paper. It is the work of honest men and has no legal flourishes. But its homely style makes it all the more interesting. No unprejudiced person can read it and not feel the force of the appeal.

GILMORE, ARK., September 6, 1888. His Excellency S. P. Hughes, Governor State of Arkansas, Little Rock. ARK.: HONORED SIR—This will introduce to you Mr. E. D. Sanders, late a candidate for sheriff of this (Crittenden) county, who goes to present our grievances to you.

On September 3d was held a general election in the State of Arkansas and in our county, Crittenden. We had in the field two tickets. One was nominated by a few men at Marion, Ark.: our county seat, men who do not represent the people or voters of the Democratic party in our county. The other was nominated by the dissatisfied members of the Democratic party and the Republicans of the county.

Our present sheriff, Mr. W. F. Werner, was the candidate on the first named ticket for re-election. The statutes of the State of Arkansas command that the County Court shall appoint three judges for each election precinct: that in case the Court fails to make the appointments the sheriff shall make them; he shall fill the place of holding elections and shall issue his proclamation at least twenty days before the day of holding elections.

At noon on the 24th day of August Sheriff Werner issued his proclamation to the election precincts. The County Court appointed the judges before Daniel Lewis, county judge, was driven from the county by these same men. They, however, did away with those appointments and appointed judges from their own friends wholly, and no one knew who the judges were to be except some few of the friends of that ticket.

At the closing of the polls on election night the People's ticket had certainly, as can be proven, polled three-fourths of the votes deposited in the several ballot boxes. In all but two precincts were carried the county clerk's office in overcoat pockets, saddle-bags and ballot boxes loose, and not, as provided by law, in sealed envelopes. In at least three precincts in the county the votes were not counted as provided by law, but were counted by the judges in the polling places at night, and one of them kept over night in the house of one of the judges, and then brought back the next morning and counted in the polling place. The two others were taken to the residences of two of the candidates of the so-called Democratic ticket and counted there. At the county seat, Marion, the friends of the other ticket were driven from the town with threats of lynching.

THE ARKANSAS OUTRAGES.

The Democracy's Villainous Practices In the South Fully Exposed.

Mr. E. D. Sanders, candidate for the office of Sheriff on the People's ticket in Crittenden county, has laid before Gov. Hughes a statement of the method by which the election was carried in that county.

Mr. Sanders says there were, in round numbers, 2,800 votes polled in Crittenden county. The Democratic ticket received 400 and the People's ticket 2,400, yet the minority controlling the election machinery has counted out a majority of 1,450 for the Democratic ticket. The people who have been thus defrauded of their rights feel so outraged that they can hardly restrain their indignation, but instead of taking the matter in their own hands, they appeal to Gov. Hughes to do something to right the wrong.

The judges of election were chosen by those having control of the county offices. When the polling places were opened they were found to be in charge of judges who, in many cases, were not even residents of the township. At Hopefield the judges of election were saloon-keepers from Memphis.

That they might have some means of knowing how the votes were cast, the supporters of the People's ticket stationed two clerks at every polling place but two in the entire county. These clerks kept a record of every ballot cast for the People's ticket. By a previous arrangement, all of these tickets were voted "open." That is, they were not folded but were handed to the judges in such a manner that everybody standing around could see what they were. This was done by the supporters of the People's ticket so that there might be no question raised as to how they voted. And in this way the evidence was obtained that the majority was overwhelming for the People's ticket.

The statement which Mr. Sanders laid before Gov. Hughes is a plain, straightforward paper. It is the work of honest men and has no legal flourishes. But its homely style makes it all the more interesting. No unprejudiced person can read it and not feel the force of the appeal.

GILMORE, ARK., September 6, 1888. His Excellency S. P. Hughes, Governor State of Arkansas, Little Rock. ARK.: HONORED SIR—This will introduce to you Mr. E. D. Sanders, late a candidate for sheriff of this (Crittenden) county, who goes to present our grievances to you.

On September 3d was held a general election in the State of Arkansas and in our county, Crittenden. We had in the field two tickets. One was nominated by a few men at Marion, Ark.: our county seat, men who do not represent the people or voters of the Democratic party in our county. The other was nominated by the dissatisfied members of the Democratic party and the Republicans of the county.

Our present sheriff, Mr. W. F. Werner, was the candidate on the first named ticket for re-election. The statutes of the State of Arkansas command that the County Court shall appoint three judges for each election precinct: that in case the Court fails to make the appointments the sheriff shall make them; he shall fill the place of holding elections and shall issue his proclamation at least twenty days before the day of holding elections.

At noon on the 24th day of August Sheriff Werner issued his proclamation to the election precincts. The County Court appointed the judges before Daniel Lewis, county judge, was driven from the county by these same men. They, however, did away with those appointments and appointed judges from their own friends wholly, and no one knew who the judges were to be except some few of the friends of that ticket.

At the closing of the polls on election night the People's ticket had certainly, as can be proven, polled three-fourths of the votes deposited in the several ballot boxes. In all but two precincts were carried the county clerk's office in overcoat pockets, saddle-bags and ballot boxes loose, and not, as provided by law, in sealed envelopes. In at least three precincts in the county the votes were not counted as provided by law, but were counted by the judges in the polling places at night, and one of them kept over night in the house of one of the judges, and then brought back the next morning and counted in the polling place. The two others were taken to the residences of two of the candidates of the so-called Democratic ticket and counted there. At the county seat, Marion, the friends of the other ticket were driven from the town with threats of lynching.

THE ARKANSAS OUTRAGES.

The Democracy's Villainous Practices In the South Fully Exposed.

Mr. E. D. Sanders, candidate for the office of Sheriff on the People's ticket in Crittenden county, has laid before Gov. Hughes a statement of the method by which the election was carried in that county.

Mr. Sanders says there were, in round numbers, 2,800 votes polled in Crittenden county. The Democratic ticket received 400 and the People's ticket 2,400, yet the minority controlling the election machinery has counted out a majority of 1,450 for the Democratic ticket. The people who have been thus defrauded of their rights feel so outraged that they can hardly restrain their indignation, but instead of taking the matter in their own hands, they appeal to Gov. Hughes to do something to right the wrong.

The judges of election were chosen by those having control of the county offices. When the polling places were opened they were found to be in charge of judges who, in many cases, were not even residents of the township. At Hopefield the judges of election were saloon-keepers from Memphis.

That they might have some means of knowing how the votes were cast, the supporters of the People's ticket stationed two clerks at every polling place but two in the entire county. These clerks kept a record of every ballot cast for the People's ticket. By a previous arrangement, all of these tickets were voted "open." That is, they were not folded but were handed to the judges in such a manner that everybody standing around could see what they were. This was done by the supporters of the People's ticket so that there might be no question raised as to how they voted. And in this way the evidence was obtained that the majority was overwhelming for the People's ticket.

The statement which Mr. Sanders laid before Gov. Hughes is a plain, straightforward paper. It is the work of honest men and has no legal flourishes. But its homely style makes it all the more interesting. No unprejudiced person can read it and not feel the force of the appeal.

GILMORE, ARK., September 6, 1888. His Excellency S. P. Hughes, Governor State of Arkansas, Little Rock. ARK.: HONORED SIR—This will introduce to you Mr. E. D. Sanders, late a candidate for sheriff of this (Crittenden) county, who goes to present our grievances to you.

On September 3d was held a general election in the State of Arkansas and in our county, Crittenden. We had in the field two tickets. One was nominated by a few men at Marion, Ark.: our county seat, men who do not represent the people or voters of the Democratic party in our county. The other was nominated by the dissatisfied members of the Democratic party and the Republicans of the county.

Our present sheriff, Mr. W. F. Werner, was the candidate on the first named ticket for re-election. The statutes of the State of Arkansas command that the County Court shall appoint three judges for each election precinct: that in case the Court fails to make the appointments the sheriff shall make them; he shall fill the place of holding elections and shall issue his proclamation at least twenty days before the day of holding elections.

At noon on the 24th day of August Sheriff Werner issued his proclamation to the election precincts. The County Court appointed the judges before Daniel Lewis, county judge, was driven from the county by these same men. They, however, did away with those appointments and appointed judges from their own friends wholly, and no one knew who the judges were to be except some few of the friends of that ticket.

At the closing of the polls on election night the People's ticket had certainly, as can be proven, polled three-fourths of the votes deposited in the several ballot boxes. In all but two precincts were carried the county clerk's office in overcoat pockets, saddle-bags and ballot boxes loose, and not, as provided by law, in sealed envelopes. In at least three precincts in the county the votes were not counted as provided by law, but were counted by the judges in the polling places at night, and one of them kept over night in the house of one of the judges, and then brought back the next morning and counted in the polling place. The two others were taken to the residences of two of the candidates of the so-called Democratic ticket and counted there. At the county seat, Marion, the friends of the other ticket were driven from the town with threats of lynching.

THE ARKANSAS OUTRAGES.

The Democracy's Villainous Practices In the South Fully Exposed.

Mr. E. D. Sanders, candidate for the office of Sheriff on the People's ticket in Crittenden county, has laid before Gov. Hughes a statement of the method by which the election was carried in that county.

Mr. Sanders says there were, in round numbers, 2,800 votes polled in Crittenden county. The Democratic ticket received 400 and the People's ticket 2,400, yet the minority controlling the election machinery has counted out a majority of 1,450 for the Democratic ticket. The people who have been thus defrauded of their rights feel so outraged that they can hardly restrain their indignation, but instead of taking the matter in their own hands, they appeal to Gov. Hughes to do something to right the wrong.

The judges of election were chosen by those having control of the county offices. When the polling places were opened they were found to be in charge of judges who, in many cases, were not even residents of the township. At Hopefield the judges of election were saloon-keepers from Memphis.

That they might have some means of knowing how the votes were cast, the supporters of the People's ticket stationed two clerks at every polling place but two in the entire county. These clerks kept a record of every ballot cast for the People's ticket. By a previous arrangement, all of these tickets were voted "open." That is, they were not folded but were handed to the judges in such a manner that everybody standing around could see what they were. This was done by the supporters of the People's ticket so that there might be no question raised as to how they voted. And in this way the evidence was obtained that the majority was overwhelming for the People's ticket.

The statement which Mr. Sanders laid before Gov. Hughes is a plain, straightforward paper. It is the work of honest men and has no legal flourishes. But its homely style makes it all the more interesting. No unprejudiced person can read it and not feel the force of the appeal.

GILMORE, ARK., September 6, 1888. His Excellency S. P. Hughes, Governor State of Arkansas, Little Rock. ARK.: HONORED SIR—This will introduce to you Mr. E. D. Sanders, late a candidate for sheriff of this (Crittenden) county, who goes to present our grievances to you.

On September 3d was held a general election in the State of Arkansas and in our county, Crittenden. We had in the field two tickets. One was nominated by a few men at Marion, Ark.: our county seat, men who do not represent the people or voters of the Democratic party in our county. The other was nominated by the dissatisfied members of the Democratic party and the Republicans of the county.

Our present sheriff, Mr. W. F. Werner, was the candidate on the first named ticket for re-election. The statutes of the State of Arkansas command that the County Court shall appoint three judges for each election precinct: that in case the Court fails to make the appointments the sheriff shall make them; he shall fill the place of holding elections and shall issue his proclamation at least twenty days before the day of holding elections.

At noon on the 24th day of August Sheriff Werner issued his proclamation to the election precincts. The County Court appointed the judges before Daniel Lewis, county judge, was driven from the county by these same men. They, however, did away with those appointments and appointed judges from their own friends wholly, and no one knew who the judges were to be except some few of the friends of that ticket.

At the closing of the polls on election night the People's ticket had certainly, as can be proven, polled three-fourths of the votes deposited in the several ballot boxes. In all but two precincts were carried the county clerk's office in overcoat pockets, saddle-bags and ballot boxes loose, and not, as provided by law, in sealed envelopes. In at least three precincts in the county the votes were not counted as provided by law, but were counted by the judges in the polling places at night, and one of them kept over night in the house of one of the judges, and then brought back the next morning and counted in the polling place. The two others were taken to the residences of two of the candidates of the so-called Democratic ticket and counted there. At the county seat, Marion, the friends of the other ticket were driven from the town with threats of lynching.

J. G. HAMAKER & CO.'S NEW GOODS

Are in, and we now propose to inaugurate one of the biggest slaughter-and-slash Dry Goods Sales that the people of Dickinson county and the City of Abilene ever saw. All former cut price sales, all future pretension from any competition from whatsoever source will be knocked clear in the shade by this positive Slaughter Sale of $20,000 worth of Dry Goods—and now to convince you that we mean exactly what we say, we will quote a few prices of the many extraordinary bargains we have to offer: 2,000 yards India blue Prints at 5c per yd; a good fast color apron Gingham at 6 1-2 c; a regular 11c cotton Flannel at 8 1-2 c; a regular 12 1-2 c cotton Flannel for 10c; an all wool dress Flannel double width for 28c; a 42-inch extra heavy dress Flannel for 50c; an all wool dress fabric heavy, in eight different mixtures, 40 in. wide, for 42c, these are all regular 60c goods; Broadcloth dress Suitings, 54 inches wide, at 80c and $1.10. nothing in miles around for anywhere near the money; 40-in. Henrietta cloths at 78c, you will pay $1 for the same goods elsewhere; all black Cashmeres are cut down in same way; 38-inch colored Cashmeres at 26c; 500 yards silk Plush at 65c, just think of it only 65c for a good silk Plush; our price on Lonsdale and Fruit of Loom bleached Muslin is still 9c. This will give you an idea what our prices are on all bleached and unbleached Muslins. Extra heavy Cheviot Shirtings 9c, regular 12 1-2 c goods. Ball's Corsets at 75c, all other makes cut down in same way.

UNDERWEAR.

From and after this date, all Ladies' and Gents' scarlet all wool fine Wrappers and Pants of regular $1.25 goodf for 88c, remember 88c for $1.25 goods; all $1.50 grades for $1.18. Ladies' fine white merino extra nish for 48c, Gents' fine Scotch gray Shirts and Drawers at 50c. These have been our regular 75c goods. A full line extra fine sanitary wool Underwear in Misses' and Children's sizes.

HOSIERY! HOSIERY!

Can't quite afford to give them away, but come in we will do the next thing to it. Now please remember that it is our purpose to sell everything in the Dry Goods line for less money than same goods can be bought elsewhere.

BOOTS AND SHOES.

We still have quite a stock of very desirable Ladies', Misses' and Children's shoes in all sizes as also a splendid stock of first class Men's Boots all of which we are selling at first cost and some even less than cost. This is a positive closing out cost sale of Boots and Shoes, as we want the room for other goods. Don't go and pay a profit on Boots and Shoes when you can buy them at cost or less.

J. G. Hamaker & Co.